In Recognizing “Education is a Civil Right”

“EDUCATION IS A CIVIL RIGHT” PARTICIPATION DAY!

In conjunction with Black History Month, all public schools are encouraged to address the issue -
“EDUCATION IS A CIVIL RIGHT”

WHO?

Superintendents, School Board Members,
Principals, Teachers, Counselors, Students and Parents!

WHAT CAN YOU DO!

Visit the NABSE website for background information: www.nabse.org

- ✓ Arrange a Student Assembly Program;
- ✓ Invite a guest speaker (community leaders, athletes, elected officials, etc.) to speak to a class or student assembly;
- ✓ Conduct an essay writing contest about Education as a Civil Right;
- ✓ Encourage Parent Teacher Associations (PTAs) and Parent Teacher Organizations (PTOs) to develop programs and awareness events;
- ✓ Invite the Local media to participate.

Please let NABSE know how your class or school plans to address this very important topic.
